

Nebraska Memories EZMetadataNLCScan Form
Information for Digitized Item

*Please provide information marked with an * if known. If an exact date is not known, a "best guess" of the year or range of years is required.*

Title: Perkins County Courthouse

*Identify depicted items such as names of people or buildings, town or place, or event:

Brick courthouse located on the corner of Spruce and 2nd Avenue in the town of Cedar Bluff, Nebraska. Several oak trees are found on the property. The building in the background was the old Thomas General Store.

Historical information about anything in the item: Built in 1915.

James W. Wilson was the architect.

Currently used as courthouse and also houses the offices for Perkins County Extension Agency.

Thomas General Store was replaced by the Cedar Bluffs Pharmacy in 1947, and the building was torn down in 1972.

*Creator of item (photographer, author, etc.): unknown

*Date of original item: 1921

*Local accession or call number: A103

*Owning Institution: Cedar Bluff Public Library

Any other useful information about this item: Photo was given to the library by Mary Ann Moses of Cedar Bluff. Mary Ann was a library trustee and early library director.